

Production Complete!

Production Run

Here we see production operation slitting a single input roll into 4 output rolls with no edge trim! Output roll side face remains clean within ~50 thousandths, or visually acceptable based on operator experience. We're satisfied with this as, "production complete". Hold-Jog mode for setup and reload is not shown.

slitting a single input roll into 4 output rolls with no edge trim

Design Walk-Through (Again)

This video was included at the end of the earlier design description post.